

[Intro]

A E Bm D

C#

[Verse 1]

A E Bm
City dweller, successful fella thought to himself

D
Oops I've got a lot of money

C#
Caught in a rat race terminally

A E
I'm a professional cynic but my heart's not in it

Bm D
I'm payin' the price of livin' life at the limit

C#
Caught up in the century's anxiety

E
Yes, it preys on him
He's gettin' thin, try the simple

[Chorus]

A
He lives in a house

E
Very big house in the country

D
Watchin' afternoon repeats

A
And the food he eats in the country

A
He takes all manner of pills

E
And piles up analyst bills in the country

D
Oh, it's like an animal farm

A G#
That's the rural charm in the country

[Verse 2]

A E
He's got morning glory and life's a different story

Bm D
Everything's going jackanory

C#
Touched with his own mortality

A E
He's reading Balzac, knocking back Prozac

Bm D
A helping hand that makes you feel wonderfully blind

C#
Oh, it's a century's remedy

E
For the faint at heart
A new start, try the simple

[Chorus]

A
He lives in a house

E
Very big house in the country

D
He's got a fog in his chest

So he needs a lot of rest in the country

He doesn't drink, smoke, laugh

Takes herbal baths in the country

You should come to no harm

On the animal farm in the country

In the country

In the country

In the country

[Solo]

Bm D C# A E

Bm D C#

[Interlude]

Blow, blow me out, I am so sad, I don't know why

Blow, blow me out, I am so sad, I don't know why
Oh

[Chorus]

He lives in a house

Very big house in the country

Watchin' afternoon repeats

And the food he eats in the country

He takes all manner of pills

And piles up analyst bills in the country

Oh, it's like an animal farm

That's the rural charm in the country

Oh Lives in a house

Very big house in the country

He's got a fog in his chest

So he needs a lot of rest in the country

He doesn't drink, smoke, laugh

Takes herbal baths in the country

You should come to no harm

On the animal farm in the country

La la la

[Outro]

E D A A
E D A A